Hi Jenn,

I just noticed that page 5 is still showing "connections academy" in the chart header.

I have some questions about the reports and also found that Insight's math and ELA proficiency percentages are swapped in the New Framework on page 6. I am planning to review the reports at our Thursday board meeting and would love to talk with you prior to that. Do you have some time we could get together tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon?

Thank you,
Kelly

Thanks for the updates, Jenn. I received the sharefile notification and will look it over. I have been looking at our old framework report and noticed that operational 2a is exempted and shouldn't be and that 2c is not exempted and should be according to our current exemptions.

I still need to dig in and look at everything in depth, but on first glance, I was excited to see that IDVA was green for academics and all of the pretty green in the academic measures on the new framework draft, too!

I can't imagine how busy it must have been (and is) for you with the late ISAT results this year!

Thanks, again,
Kelly

Also, that NSize is a <18%, and I forgot to pull the exempted financial measures from the snapshot page. I'm going to queue the "ela" highlight up for an all schools review next week. I'm guessing that is in every report, not just the one I pulled together too quickly last night. I appreciate your patience! Also, well done. Even the new alt measures look really good.

Thanks, Jenn!

I understand about using templates! I am glad to know the data is ours! While you are working on a revision, I found a typo on page 13. The highlighted "ELA" should say "Math".

Darn it. I used an Inspire template. The data is yours. I'll have someone review it one more time. I just missed changing a title somewhere. Sorry about that! On it now!

Hi Jenn,

I received notification of the reports in Sharefile and downloaded them. The report titled IDVA FY22 Annual Report New Framework – DRAFT looks to be a mix of IDVA and Inspire Connections Academy.

Example: page 5 demographic summary title is "IDVA Connections Academy".

Example: page 6 21/22 annual snapshot notes Inspire Connections Academy and Empower Connections Academy.

I am unclear about other sections of the report. Are they for IDVA or for Inspire?

Could we, please, get a corrected report ASAP?

Thank you,
Kelly

Hi Kelly. Annual reports and renewal recommendations are being released in the next hour or so in ShareFile - You'll get another email. I just wanted to give you a heads up that I included 2 versions of your annual report. The old one and the new version. I know your board has opted to stick with the old version for this one last year, but with renewal coming up, I'm hoping to convince you otherwise.

I think the new version of the report celebrates your successes more clearly than the old. It is ultimately your board's decision which report we forward on to the commission and the public, but if I were in your shoes I would go with the new report.

Food for thought. Let me know what you decide.

It was good to see you last week! Hope all is well!
